Description
-------------

Majestic Art-deco Centerpiece, in the shape of a Cup signed DAUM. Discover this smoked glass vase signed by the DAUM glassmaker in Nancy, dating from the 20s/30s, Adorned with an elegant geometric pattern. available in three rows of small rectangles in frosted hollows etched with acid, and delicately outlined with lines subtly alternating with parts with smooth surfaces, creating a refined textural effect. This work rests on a faceted heel which beautifully completes the whole. For more than 120 years, the DAUM factory in Nancy has been a benchmark for excellence and innovation in the field of art crystal. From 1892, Auguste DAUM entrusted the artistic department to his brother Antonin, then with Paul, they allowed the house to distinguish itself in Art Deco. DAUM continues
