Description

Unique work by the artist couple Renate Koerber & Henk Mulders: "Woman with a Rooster" Discover a rare and unusual piece dating from the 1960s. Beautiful earthenware sculpture, with a unique and emblematic style of their work. This work, which can be described as marginal art, represents a woman carrying a rooster (fusing femininity and masculinity) symbol of their daring creativity. The decor on the body is adorned with a farandole of characters, which are "strung" surrounded by a ribbon - an element found in real fabric attached to the legs of the rooster which is itself perched on a pointed hat and adjusted to the body. head. All allowing a rotational movement, the rooster hat on the head and the body on the base. This unique piece bears witness to a period of their rich and prolific lives,
