Description

Polychrome ceramic jewelry box from the 20th century, 60s and 70s, by Marion de Crécy. Very interesting box with a butterfly decoration enhanced with gold. As always, Marion de Crecy, daughter of Mithé Espelt, used her imagination to create a piece full of charm and invention, without forgetting a remarkable quality of production, both in the material and the colors. Excellent original condition of the set, signature on the right side at the bottom. Can be sent to France and around the world by secure and insured package. Invoice and certificate provided.
