PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Bordeaux Military Commission Judgment, Death Penalty, 1797

JUGEMENT
RENDU PAR LA COMMISSION MILITAIRE,
SÉANTE A BORDEAUX,

220 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Paper

Description

Military judgment for anti-revolutionary sentiments - Text poster Author/Performer Military Commission Creation date 1793, August 23 Place of creation Bordeaux Lafforest Silva Printer Creation date1793 Printed Material and technique Vellum paper Printed in black Description: Judgment rendered by the Revolutionary Tribunal of Bordeaux against Louis Azema, merchant clerk, aristocrat. He was sentenced to death as a traitor to the fatherland for "having publicly slandered a battalion of brave national guards ... having served the atrocious projects of the conspiratorial deputies, having spoken with great warmth in a reading room ... having vomited the blackest and most base slanders against the Parisian generals ..." Poster of 42 x 54 cm, recently framed, good condition

Dealer

Fourrel de Frettes
Antiquites de le Breche, Bazas 33430
Mobile : 06 07 34 10 82

7 rue Théophile Serviere, Bazas 33430
Bazas 33430