

Denis Matemo "market Scene", Charcoal Painting On Canvas In 2016

4 800 EUR

Signature : Denis Matemo

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 114

Height : 100

Description

DENIS MATEMO "market scene", painting, charcoal technique on canvas mounted on a stretcher, painted in 2016. Work in good condition, signed and dated, varnished on the surface to protect the charcoal pigments.

Biography: Denis Matemo was born in Kinshasa in 1978. He began painting at a very early age, developing his own style over the years. After studying Fine Arts at the Academy of Fine Arts in Kinshasa, he decided to devote himself fully to his passion for art. Matemo's painting is rich in colors and symbols. His paintings are often imbued with spirituality and mysticism. He uses different painting techniques, ranging from acrylic to watercolor. He is also known for his talent in creating frescoes and murals, which can be found throughout the city of Kinshasa. Denis

Dealer

Galerie Pignolet

20th century objects and furniture

Mobile : 0032 498 295 815

53 Chaussée de Waterloo

Namur 5000

Matemo is today considered one of the most important artists of his generation in Africa. He has participated in numerous exhibitions in Africa and abroad, particularly in Europe and the United States. His paintings are also highly prized by art collectors around the world. He regularly organizes workshops for young artists in Kinshasa, encouraging them to develop their own style and explore their creativity. He is also involved in cultural projects that aim to promote Congolese art and culture abroad.