

18th Century Blown Glass Lacemaker's Loupe

400 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Glass

Diameter : 17cm

Height : 35 cm

Description

Very light wave resting on an elegant circular hemmed pedestal. In the center of the base, we can see the characteristic mark of the cane, attesting to its artisanal manufacture. This rare object, originally used by lacemakers, made it possible to enlarge the details of their work thanks to the refraction of light through water. Iamb of the base 12 cm 3.5 cm at the neck
