Description

Louis XVI chest of drawers with central projection in amaranth and solid mahogany. The reserves of the drawers and sides are in golden yellow moiré lemon veneer, in total contrast with the amaranth and mahogany typical of these Louis XVI chests of drawers. Parisian work from the Louis XVI period. This chest of drawers opens with 5 drawers, 2 large and 3 in the belt with bronze lion head pull rings. Chest of drawers of a very beautiful quality of manufacture entirely mounted on oak and covered with its period white Carrara marble underlined by a groove on its perimeter. Chest of drawers in very beautiful state of conservation revarnished with a tampon with its bronze cladding and original lock.
