Description

-Aubusson tapestry in wool and silk from the beginning of the 18th century.

- The composition is neat with a search for depth thanks to a succession of different planes. - Of an infinite variety, the verdure remains a constant of the production of the Aubusson workshops between the 17th and 18th centuries. If the exhibition of a verdant nature is their main theme, their differences lie in particular in the quality of the design, the fineness of the weaving, their border.

-Good state of conservation, wear, reweaving and restorations are to be noted. lined, velcro fastening system
