

Hen And Rooster, Oils On Canvas, Attributed To David De Coninck XVII

7 600 EUR

Signature : David de Coninck

Period : 17th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Oil painting

Width : 46

Height : 56

Description

Pair of hanging canvases, representing a hen and her chicks and a hanging rooster, beautiful subject this pair of rare canvases is attributed to the painter David de Coninck 1643 1705,, student of Pieter Boel and became master of the Antwerp guild in 1664, recognized at the Brussels painters' guild in 1699 the last known reference concerning him, in 1701 he is designated as a renowned animal painter The pair of canvases presented here is a good "example" of this, !! Good condition, these quality canvases, with many quality details are presented in tortoiseshell style frames with a red background (the latter are missing) The whole is of the most beautiful effect !!!! 61 by 71 Rare!

Dealer

Galerie Etienne Thuriet

Mobilier, Objets d'art et décoration XVIIIe et XIXe

Tel : 02.37.22.73.90

Mobile : 06.13.61.34.95

41-43, rue des Changes

Chartres 28000