Small 19th Century Gilt Wood Cornucopia Mirror With Candle Arm

350 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gilted wood

Description

This exquisite little cornucopia mirror, dating from the early 1800s, is a remarkable piece of 19th century craftsmanship. Beautifully carved from wood and adorned with fine gold leaf gilding, this mirror is both elegant and historically significant, retaining its original glass. With a single candle arm, it serves as both a functional and decorative piece, ideal for adding a warm, antique glow to any room. Measuring 45cm in height, this cornucopia mirror is compact yet impactful, perfect for accenting walls with a touch of 19th century charm. The delicate gold finish has aged gracefully, giving the piece a beautiful patina that enhances its antique appeal. Dimensions: Height: 45cm Width: 30cm Depth: 15cm Key Features: 19th Century Antique: An authentic cornucopia mirror from the early 1800s,

Dealer

Florin Antiques
Meubles et Objets d'art du XVIIIe et XIXeme
Tel : 0034 671 362 406
Mobile : 0034 671 362 406

PASEO RECOLETOS 31
Madrid 28004

showcasing the artistry of the period. Original Mirror Glass: Retains its original mirror, adding to its historical value. Hand-Carved Wood: Expertly crafted with intricate details, complemented by fine gold leaf gilding. Candle Arm: Features a single candle arm, adding both functionality and a touch of classic elegance. Elegant Patina: Antiqued gold finish enhances the piece's antique charm. Perfect for collectors of fine antiques, interior designers, or anyone looking to add a unique piece of history to their space, this cornucopia mirror is a true treasure that evokes the elegance of the early 19th century. Why Choose This Cornucopia Mirror? Authentic 19th-century craftsmanship with original features. Its compact size makes it versatile for various interior decors. Adds a refined and historical aesthetic to any space. Bring a touch of timeless beauty to your decor with this exceptional 19th-century cornucopia mirror.