Details of the work Cotton and other Fabric treated with acrylic and gouache, nailed to an oak core 120x143cm

About the work In this work, I worked the depth of abstraction painted on a textile base.

Using raw cotton of different origins and materials as a canvas, I infused each fiber with passion and raw emotion, letting the colors intermingle freely to capture a sense of urgency and spontaneity.

This piece, where acrylics and gouaches are mixed, vibrates with a wild and organic energy, bringing a lively and stimulating presence into any domestic space. Art is not just seen, it is felt,
