

Antique Arab Capital - 11th Century Style,

1 650 EUR

Period : Before 16th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Terracotta

Description

This decorative Arab capital, inspired by the elegant designs of the 11th century, is a captivating piece that combines historical significance with artistic craftsmanship. Crafted from terracotta or a similar material in the 1950s, this capital is mounted on a sturdy iron base, making it a striking addition to any home or garden decor. Key Features: Historical Inspiration: Reflecting the intricate art of 11th-century Arab architecture, this capital showcases the beauty and elegance of Islamic design. Its ornate details make it a fascinating piece for collectors and lovers of historical art. Quality Craftsmanship: Crafted from terracotta or a similar material, this capital is both durable and visually appealing. The craftsmanship highlights the cultural significance of the piece, making it a

Dealer

Florin Antiques

Meubles et Objets d'art du XVIIIe et XIXeme

Tel : 0034 671 362 406

Mobile : 0034 671 362 406

PASEO RECOLETOS 31

Madrid 28004

unique decorative piece. Sturdy Iron Base:

Mounted on a sturdy iron base, this capital is not only a decorative piece but also a stable piece that can be displayed with confidence. The contrast between terracotta and iron adds an industrial touch to its classic design. Generous Dimensions: Measuring 147cm x 22cm x 23cm, this marquee is an impressive piece that can serve as a focal point in your home or garden. Its size makes it ideal for both indoor and outdoor display.

Dimensions: Size: 147cm x 22cm x 23cm

(approx. 57.9" x 8.7" x 9.1") Why Choose This

Antique Arabic Marquee? This exquisite marquee is more than just a decorative piece; it represents a blend of history and art that can enhance any space. Ideal for collectors, interior designers, or anyone looking to add a touch of cultural elegance to their decor, this marquee brings a unique charm to your collection.