Description

Scary and imposing mask from Japan dating from the Taishô-early Shôwa period, 20th century.

This is a large mask in brown and red lacquered wood, with golden eyes, reproducing a type of Bugaku theater, identified on the reverse as Taishôtoku, after a model considered a national treasure.

A theater mask in very good condition, large in size and with a scary appearance.

A beautiful collector's mask.

Dimensions:

28 cm high by 20 cm wide and 20 cm deep.
