

Mazzucotelli Alessandro (1865-1938) (attributed To). Pair Of Wrought Iron Chandeliers

850 EUR

Signature : Alessandro MAZZUCOTELLI

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Wrought iron

Diameter : 95

Height : 74

Description

MAZZUCOTELLI Alessandro (1865-1938) (attributed to). Pair of chandeliers in varnished wrought iron on raw metal with six light arms composed of winged dragons each holding a torch. Restoration (electricity, sockets, fake candles). Height: 74 cm. Diameter: 95 cm
Alessandro Mazzucotelli (born December 30, 1865 in Lodi and died January 29, 1938 in Milan) is a craftsman, interior designer and ironworker, one of the most renowned ironworkers of the late 19th and early 20th centuries in Italy.

Dealer

Cimiez Antiquités

FRANCE ANTIQUES

Tel : 0423358119

Mobile : 0771785219

28 rue Catherine Ségurane

Nice 06000