Description

Rare set of nine carved wooden roundels from a Rosary Altar. Southern Germany, 16th century. Each relief measures approximately 15cm in diameter. The nine polychrome bas-relief wooden roundels represent scenes from the Passion of Christ. The roundels show general signs of wear and tear and are in original condition without restoration. The modern ebonised frame measures 78 x 78cm. Each roundel is mounted within a panel covered in blue or green velvet.
