Description

We present this exceptional and rare chest of drawers with three rows of drawers from the Régence period in veneered wood, decorated with bronze handles and lock entries (one is different). It is covered with a magnificent and very thick stone, it was repaired a long time ago. We are selling this chest of drawers as we bought it from a property in our region. It is also exceptional for its size, much larger than all those we have seen and owned. It is important to look in detail at the patterns formed by the assembly of the veneer on each side, we see a clover. This chest of drawers is rare for its quality, its size, it is sold as being truly period. Deliverable throughout France by us and at our expense. (E24)
