Description

Description:
Chiseled and gilded bronze, cut crystal.
Each of the covered vases and potpourris in the Regency style of this spectacular and elegant pair is designed in the spirit of large architectural basins. The crystal belly with wide moldings and fluting is surrounded by gilded bronze in the form of three putti in sheaths resting on double ram's paw feet.
The openwork neck with oval holes is decorated with rosettes and carries a crystal lid with a rosette and pine cone grip. The deep and vigorous chiseling contributes to the exceptional side of these objects.
By its quality these potpourris can be attributed to the Escalier de Cristal.
