Description

Sèvres porcelain cup with the Louis Philippe cipher intended for the Château de Neuilly, dated 1847.

This cup is mounted on a very baroque gilt bronze display decorated with vine branches and grapes. The cup is very finely decorated with garland flowers with a profusion of varieties and colors. On the back, two stamps: one red "Chateau de Neuilly", one blue "Sèvres 1847", both with the Louis Philippe cipher. Note a small R in red, probably the decorator. The set is in perfect condition, the porcelain as well as the gilt bronze mount is entirely worthy of its royal provenance.
