Description

Marcel-Lenoir (1872-1931) Kneeling Woman
Pencil on paper signed lower left Marcel-Lenoir, these both date from the artist's second creative period in the 1910s, they are two preparatory sketches for two large painted compositions, probably mystical, thus, the work with the characters with children on the back and shoulders is probably a preparatory study for the monumental work entitled Chacun son Dieu from 1911 kept in our Marcel-Lenoir Museum and you can mention for these the authentication of the Marcel-Lenoir Committee for the attention of collectors.
