Description

MAISON VEUVE MAURICE (PARIS) A charming, intricately shaped easel frame in gilded bronze and polychrome champlevé enamels. The front features a rich Rocaille-inspired decoration, entirely covered in champlevé enamels depicting foliage motifs, leafy volutes and small stylised flowers in shades of turquoise blue, cobalt blue, white, green and old rose against a gold background. The top is crowned by an asymmetrical, undulating pediment shaped like a whip. A recessed maker's mark depicting a windmill flanked by the initials V and M, surmounting the inscription 'DÉPOSÉ PARIS'. France (Paris). Late 19th century, circa 1895-1900.H_13 cm, W_9 cm.
