Description

MULLER FRÈRES IN LUNÉVILLE A large table centrepiece in marbled glass with a wrought-iron frame. The oval-shaped piece, crafted from multi-layered blown glass, features an internal marbled design in warm, luminous shades of bright orange, red and saffron yellow. It is set within an elegant and sturdy frame of patinated, hammered wrought iron, designed to resemble a fence or an openwork woven basket. The uprights rise to form a tall, geometric double handle, richly decorated at the base with stylised blooming roses and rose foliage worked in relief. Signed 'Muller Frères Lunéville', engraved on the glass. France (Lorraine). Art Deco period, circa 1925-1930 H_16 cm, L_24 cm Parfait état.
