schools, he first specialized in the technique of cut paper before devoting himself to mosaics.

He moved to Paris in 1958 and met the artists of the surrealist movement. In a comic strip universe.

Erró brings together cartoon figures and historical despots. He constantly gleans visuals from newspapers, advertising, or illustrations to create his collages.

Cultural samples from all the countries he travels. In this way, comics and Chinese propaganda can and will be found on the same level.
