Description

Louis XVI period dressing table in marquetry.
Late 18th century. Rosewood marquetry, green-tinted wood fillets and boxwood fillets. The rosewood is arranged in "butterfly wings" on the top. It rests on four sheathed legs with bronze sabots. It opens on the front with two drawers and a writing tablet covered in leather. The top opens in three lift-up parts revealing a mirror and three boxes. The two original locks are functional and have a key. Recent French polish. Dimensions: L 79.5 x D 46 x H 73
