Description

The sculpture "The Three Bears" by Philippe BERRY is a tender and poetic work that depicts three bears, each represented in a simple but expressive pose. They are stylized, with round and soft shapes that accentuate their childish and warm side, evoking innocence and tenderness. The work is made of bronze, a material that gives the sculpture a patina that varies over time. Philippe BERRY thus creates a work that touches by its simplicity and its ability to arouse universal emotions. The work is signed, numbered and limited to 50 copies.
