Description

This gorgeous courtyard scene likely depicts a Spanish villa, but with the character and aura of a Moroccan riad. The vibrant blue tiles, details and indoor plants give this piece a magnificent Mediterranean ambience. Josep Maria Vayreda Canadell was a Spanish postwar and contemporary artist, known for painting landscapes, cityscapes and interiors, with a highly unique style that focuses on light and texture within his surroundings. His depiction of light and muted palettes saturate his paintings with an ethereal quality.
