Description

This large opening bangle bracelet is made of hard gray-green stone veined with brown carved with traditional Chinese patterns. We can identify, among others, a bat, a bird and mythological animals. The setting is in embossed vermeil with floral patterns, the clasp is screw. The stone does not scratch with a hard steel tip, which eliminates steatite and serpentine. The polish and internal structure are reminiscent of nephrite jade. Unhallmarked vermeil, tested silver with a touchstone. Perfectly functional clasp, very lively gilding. Perfect condition!
