Description

Pair of Japanese prints signed by the great master UTAGAWA KUNISADA 1st also called Toyokuni III or Gototei - Kochoro Beautiful pair of prints in bright colors Utagawa Kunisada (?? ???)1 (1786-January 12, 1865), also known as Utagawa Toyokuni III (???????)1 is one of the most popular ukiyo-e painters of the 19th century and also one of the most prolific and financially successful, ahead of Kuniyoshi and Hiroshige. He notably made an illustration of Genji monogatari and representations of contemporary kabuki actors. He is an undisputed master of woodblock prints. Utagawa Kunisada was born in Edo in 1786. His father, who died the following year, was an amateur poet of little reputation. After showing a strong predilection for art (he copied the drawings of kabuki actors), he was accepted
