Description

JEAN-PIERRE KATEMBWE, oil on canvas 2017 21st Century. Painting in perfect condition.

Biography: Born in 1964 in Mbuji Mayi, Democratic Republic of Congo, Jean-Pierre Katembwe (also known as Jeampy Katembwe) creates deliberately minimalist works, with simple lines, giving priority to dialogue with the viewer. A rare feature in his technique: he uses nescafé to give his oil paintings their brown tone.

Known for his vibrant and expressive art, he reflects through his works the cultural richness and social realities of his native country.

Katembwe developed a passion for art from a young age, drawing inspiration from daily life, lush nature and the traditions of the DRC. He studied at the Academy of Fine Arts in Kinshasa, where he perfected his unique style. His painting
