Description

A pair of patinated and gilded bronze candelabra, composed of a winged putto in patinated bronze resting on a sphere and raising a torch above his head from which the three arms of light spring. The gilded bronze sockets are finely chiseled with scales. The patinated bronze side arms decorated with foliage turned into a volute with flowers are arranged symmetrically around the third central arm in gilded bronze decorated with plant motifs and fluting. The whole rests on a vase-shaped base decorated with the same decoration of scales and palmettes, on a square plinth in patinated bronze.
