Description

Oil painting on canvas from the early 19th century depicting a marine scene from the First Empire period. Very interesting painting in its good original condition evoking a scene animated by several ships, the main one being approached by a boat with a character. Note the presence of seabirds in a stormy sky. Presence of the period gilded wooden frame of very original shape. Dimensions of the frame 37 by 29 cm. Very interesting size allowing this work to be positioned in a beautiful collection. Possibility of sending in France and around the world by secure and insured package. Invoice and certificate provided.
