Description

Large painting of the Spanish school of the second half of the 19th century "Copy of the famous painting The Holy Family by BARTOLOME' ESTEBAN MURILLO" which is one of the most important works of the author. It depicts the domestic scene of the Holy Family, where three characters and a little dog are depicted. The focus of the painting is depicted by a male figure "Saint Joseph" sitting on a chair, covered on his legs by a blanket, with his little son "Baby Jesus" leaning on his leg, holding a little bird in his hand and who, with his gaze turned downwards, seems to be playing with the depicted little dog. On the left of the painting there is a woman "Mary" also sitting, who holds in her hand a ball of wool that she is spinning and with a serene look and face watches her loved ones what they are doing. A sweet life of a family scene that enhances the symbol of the family, highlighting the human warmth that is the protagonist of the work, which masters the painting despite the dark colors of the dark surrounding environment of the room depicted. The painting has been relined in the past and has also had some small restoration work on the sector, but it is in good condition and as can be seen from the photos it is unframed.
