Description

Biedermeier Table 1820 in Walnut: Timeless Elegance

This Biedermeier table from 1820 is a perfect example of craftsmanship from that period. Made of walnut wood, it exudes sophistication and class. The wood used has been carefully selected to ensure quality and durability over time. With its elegant center finish, this table stands out for its refined details and harmonious lines.

Design and Functionality

Beyond its aesthetic elegance, the table offers great functionality. It features a hidden desk inside and drawers below, making it ideal for storing small items or important documents. Measuring 104x58x80 cm, it fits perfectly into both classic and modern spaces, thanks to its sober yet richly detailed design.
