Description

Two-body sideboard in solid oak, perfectly illustrating the traditional Lorraine style of the Nancy region, with its hand-carved details. Thanks to its harmonious proportions, this piece of furniture stands out for its elegance and functionality.

The sideboard is made up of two separate parts: the upper part has two carved doors with fretwork contours, with fern panels, decorated with a tree of life on the false frame, adding a touch of elegance to the whole. The cornice, slightly overhanging, provides a neat finish. The lower part includes a strip drawer, with gilded brass handles with refined details. The two solid oak doors have fretwork and molded frames, also with fern panels. The hinges, called "long vase
