Description

French chest of drawers Louis Philippe mid 19th century. The wood is of the burl of walnut.

Walnut brambles are flamed because they have many aesthetic designs. These drawings have complex, highly contrasting patterns and intricate veins on a naturally dark background of varying intensities.

This chest of drawers is equipped with five drawers, one of which is called "doucine". It is hidden in the upper belt of the chest of drawers. Another smaller drawer is hidden in the lower part. The drawers are dovetailed ensuring perfect solidity. The drawers can be opened daily and hold many sometimes heavy objects. They slide perfectly.
