Description

These walnut wood sculptures in a neoclassical style represent water carriers. The woodwork and the choice of pose give the works an elegant and serene character. The folds of the clothes and the graceful posture testify to a finesse of execution, recalling classical representations of female figures. They could be inspired by the ancient tradition where water carriers often symbolize purity and the source of life. Dimensions: Height 62cm - Width 18cm These sculptures can be beautifully integrated into various interiors. Their elegance and simplicity make them versatile and suitable for different styles of decoration, including: 1. Classic Interiors: They reinforce the timeless and refined atmosphere of a classic decor, especially when surrounded by noble materials such as solid wood, marble or leather. 2.
