Description

Superb and rare anthropomorphic Kwandalha container or healing pot, Cham-Mwana from Nigeria, in terracotta dating from the 19th century. This piece is to be compared to a similar model found in the Barbier-Mueller collection in Geneva, referenced in the inventory and in the book devoted to African terracotta of this museum. Beautiful crusty patina. Good condition except for an old lack at the eye level, without affecting the beautiful aesthetic. Height 27 cm without the wooden ring serving as a base. We take particular care with our packaging by using optimum protection. The shipment is made with insurance included. Shipping rates: Metropolitan France: 25 euros, European Union countries and Switzerland: 35 euros, Eastern European and Maghreb countries: 65 euros, United States,
