Description

TASSIN - Plans and profiles of the main cities of the Duchy of Lorraine, with the general map & the particulars of each government of them. Paris, se, 1638; in-8 oblong, 27 plates, half-brown percaline binding 19th century, smooth spine, gilt edges. Very rare work on Lorraine. The body of the work is in good condition, but another binding is needed. This one is shorter than the work and does not suit its quality. It is undoubtedly a salvaged binding. In fact, it is a small atlas of Lorraine with views of the important cities of this region.
