Description

2 second class seats from the Parisian metro that ran between 1920 and 1930. Metal legs, solid oak seat, enamelled plaque. Circular bistro table, metal and brass.
Let's imagine what these seats have experienced; Paris in the Roaring Twenties. Women are freed thanks to the fashion of Coco Chanel, the artistic avant-garde with ManRay, Brancusi, Modigliani or Picasso. If these seats have a soul, it is that of the European cultural revolution.
