Description

Magnificent Japanese-style Bamboo Coat Rack or cloakroom circa 1900. It has 6 hooks in the shape of bamboo shoots for hats, coats and other accessories. It is decorated with an intact round mirror surrounded by a wicker frame. Which adds a functional and aesthetic touch to this piece of furniture. Its structure is decorated with two ceramic tiles decorated with dragons which bring a touch of color to the whole. Its clean lines, its natural materials, its patterns inspired by Japanese art give this coat rack an undeniable charm. Made entirely of bamboo, this piece of furniture displays a natural and light elegance, typical of this period. In very good condition.
