Description

Composed of three hand-painted images, fixed in a wooden frame. Titled: a godem - the little hat - a brave of vaterloo (sic). One of the last representations of the Emperor before his disgrace, a tribute to his soldiers and an allusion to the enemy. Period between 1815 and 1820. Beautiful painting with a lot of character. Very good condition (certainly could not have been looked at much) Free shipping for metropolitan France
