Description

Painting portrait of a young woman with a headdress by Georges Artemoff, early 20th century. Very interesting portrait by this great artist who rubbed shoulders with Zadkine, Picasso, Soutine, Juan Gris, Modigliani after his arrival in Paris. Born in Russia in 1892, died in Revel in 1965 where he took refuge in 1938. He notably won the gold medal at the Salon des Artistes Décorateurs in 1928. Exceptional piece and very rare on the market, it will complete a collection of modern art from the 20th century. Signature at the bottom left. Note the very good state of conservation and the freshness of the colors. Possibility of sending to France and around the world by secure and insured package. Invoice and certificate provided. Dimensions of the frame 28.5 by 34 cm.
