Exceptional pair of Italian Art Deco bedside tables (1930). Fabulously carved and veneered furniture in walnut, African walnut, burl and fruitwood. Bedside tables with a door that offers a flatter support surface inside at the base (see photo). The construction is unique with a frontal decoration in relief that becomes one with the front foot. The furniture is also supported by three rear feet. Bedside tables for antique dealers and interior decorators, ideal for a bedroom or living room, beautifully decorated and very charming. Structurally sound, they show some small signs of age. Overall in good condition.
