Description

Very pretty scene on this old oil on canvas never retouched representing a typical sheepfold of the countryside of the south of France, in the 19th century nestled in the trees, under a summer sky. The landscape is animated by the departure of the flock of sheep under the good guard of the alert dog, waiting for its master. the painter delimits the scene by the warm light with which he surrounds it, and distills it on the protective walls of the sheepfold, through the groves and the foliage, and in the background, we can guess a hamlet of houses. An old work of good quality, full of harmony and charm where the animals give life and humanity to the landscape. dimensions of the canvas 40 cm x 30 cm. authenticity wax on the edge of the frame. signature at the bottom left, for a shipment
