Description

Give your interior a touch of timeless elegance with this antique mirror, with its authentic charm and strong character. Its carefully crafted wooden frame shows delicate marks of time, revealed by a few woodworm holes that bear witness to its history. This frame has been meticulously restored, treated to eliminate all traces of insects, then protected with a golden wax that enhances its original patina and gives it a soft luminosity. The mirror itself is a period model, made with silver nitrate, which gives it the depth and slightly veiled reflection typical of antique mirrors. The original parquet flooring is evidence of high-quality construction, ensuring the solidity and durability of the piece over the years. Ideal for enhancing an entrance, bedroom or living room, this mirror will capture the light and
