

Crespina In Urbino Majolica - Second Half Of The Sixteenth Century

11 000 EUR

Period : 16th century

Condition : Restauré

Material : Earthenware

Diameter : 30,5cm

Description

Crespina on pedestal in Urbino majolica with polychrome decoration in full of a scene depicting "Joseph is paid in kind" (Genesis, XLVII,16)

Joseph in Egypt managing the sale of cereals during the famine on behalf of the pharaoh. After an engraving by Bernard Salomon.

Workshop of Gironimo Tomasi.

Inscription on the reverse not deciphered.

Around 1560 - 1580

Diam.: 30,5cm

A dish showing this same scene is kept at the Louvre Museum with an attribution to Italy or France (Lyon or Nevers)

Ref: Majolica from the national museums -

Jeanne Giacomotti - Louvre. Inv: OA 6428. Page

Dealer

Bils Ceramiques

Ceramic Specialist, Sales Purchase & Expertise

Mobile : 06.74.59.17.01

Lyon 69002

Photos and additional information on request