Description

Original oil on canvas, 46 cm x 38 cm, sold with its white frame 54 cm x 46 cm, signed and dated lower right Patricia Vest November 1981, representing widows who come to flower the tomb of their husband. Painting in very good condition. Quite striking contrast between the time and the place (a cemetery on All Souls' Day) and the serenity or even the joy which emanates from this painting by the expression of the faces and by the very bright colors of the flowers or even the dresses of some widows. Perfect condition. Sold with an invoice-certificate.
