Description

Very beautiful decorative earthenware dish representing a male character holding a cane-stick in his hand. He wears trousers reaching up to his waist, a top with a raised collar, typical masculine attire of the Directory and the early years of the 19th century. This magnificent painting on earthenware bears the signature E. Faux in the decoration at the bottom right. A second dish that can be a counterpart to this one and made by the same artist representing a female character from the same period and of the same diameter is available on our gallery. Dimensions: diameter 33 cm height 2.5 cm Shipping and protection costs 20 euros in mainland France, other destinations contact us
