Description

Alsatian sideboard with support height in solid stained wood from the 17th century around 1650, projection front opening with 2 large doors and 6 drawers, all punctuated by three twisted columns topped with Corinthian capitals, we notice a rich ornamentation of guilloche frames as well as superb relief sculptures, the upper part gives the impression of a slight narrowing by two stylized dolphins, the whole rests on three loaf feet housed under a notched cornice with overflow. It should be noted the rare quality of the sculptures which embellish the architecture of this exceptional old Alsatian piece of furniture h131 x 160 x 50
