Description

Rosendo Gonzalez Carbonell skilfully transforms a simple still life into a bold, dramatic composition. In this masterpiece, these magnificent white and pink roses burst outwards from the canvas in an outstanding study of depth and dimension. An almost theatrical contrast is beautifully orchestrated between these beaming flowers and the shadowy background, a powerful symbol of hope within the darkness.

Celebrated for his highly atmospheric interiors and portraits, Rosendo Gonzalez Carbonell was a Spanish painter born in 1910. The artist has an exceptional ability to fill his canvas with passion and emotion, frequently contrasting intense colour with striking shadow.
