Description

Diamond Ring 0.340 Carat 18 Carat Two-Tone Gold This elegant two-tone ring in yellow and white gold is a highly sophisticated piece of jewelry, designed in a bandeau style that immediately attracts attention with its refinement. The white gold band is adorned with raised geometric patterns, reminiscent of a lattice pattern, and is enhanced with small round-cut diamonds harmoniously arranged all around the band. These diamonds add a subtle sparkle, creating a captivating play of light with every movement. The yellow gold borders, finely engraved with delicate patterns, elegantly frame the band, accentuating the contrast between the two precious metals. This combination of yellow and white gold gives the ring a timeless and classic look, ideal for lovers of high-quality
